Dr. Robinson now makes his professional visits either on foot or horseback. His handsome new phaeton is a wreck of splinters and bent and twisted iron. Yesterday he drove up to his residence and took the bridle off his horse to allow her to drink. The animal became frightened at a piece of paper and ran into the stable, making a total wreck of the phaeton. Mrs. Robinson endeavored to stop the horse in its mad career, but was thrown under the buggy, the wheels passing over her. Luckily, she escaped with a few bad bruises.
